Women are not entitled to exemption from jury duty, declared Mrs. Meredith of Colorado, who called the attention of the women to their duties in regard to the courts. She said, "We would not have so much crime if there was not so much profit to be made from it. A district attorney is not re-elected because he has mercy and truth and walks justly, but because of the number of convictions he secures. Anyone at all familiar with the criminal courts knows that evidence is sometimes invented at the behest of the state to hang a man who is a citizen of the state. The county jails are the most disgraceful institutions we have. They are cells of county court houses and usually are most inadequate in size. They provide no employment. A sentence in one of them is usually the preliminary to a postgraduate course in jails.

We have our prisoners, starved them, bullied them in cell, burned them—everything but stopped making them. In some states, where women and children are now exempt from jury duty, they must serve on juries. The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Colorado has gone a step farther. The docket is watched and whenever a woman or child is to be tried, delegates women to sit through the trial.

Mrs. Wood preceded the topic of New Hampshire's need of her women citizens, paying tribute to the treatment of the women of the state by the men voters and asking that women be taken into their citizenship, four years entrance into public life by individual women only after their homes have been made right, honest consideration of the other person's point of view, destruction of individual lines between groups of women, mutual faith.

Mrs. Dwight Hall of Dover, one of the four women appointed in April to membership of a state board outlaid her work as a trustee of the state hospital and Mrs. McDuffee of Bar Harbor, vice-president of the state Parent Teachers' Association, made a plan for activity by the women in educational matters.

Mrs. William Z. Brinley, vice-president of the Boston Woman's Trade Union League and chairman of the industrial committee of the Massachusetts Woman's Eight Hour Association, presented the problems of the women in industry, stating that political democracy is a step toward industrial democracy.
