OVER 100 TO STUDY CITIZENSHIP

Big Enrollment Assures Success of Innovation at State College

The success of the school for citizenship to be held at New Hampshire college, Durham, July 8-12, is assured. Over 100 prominent club women from all parts of the state have enrolled. This is the statement given out by the following committee of hostesses: Mrs. Ralph D. Hetzel, Mrs. James Chamberlain, Mrs. Ralph D. Paine, Mrs. Charles Simmers, Mrs. Walter O. Kane and Mrs. Bertha Titsworth.

The board of management will announce the program in a few days. It promises to be very interesting. The patronesses are urging all women who are interested in the welfare of the state to attend. The school is open to every woman and those who wish to go are asked to write and reserve rooms. Address all letters: Office of President, New Hampshire College, Durham. The price of room and board is $2.50 a day. The patronesses of the school are: Mrs. George Bingham, Mrs. Arthur Clarke, Mrs. George A. Carpenter, Wolfeboro; Mrs. Kate K. Davis, Marlborough; Mrs. Paul L. DuBois, Concord; Mrs. Elmer Eaton, Nashua; Mrs. W. B. Fellows, Tilton; Mrs. Windsor H. Goodnow, Keene; Mrs. A. H. Harriman, Laconia; Mrs. C. E. Howard, Claremont; Mrs. N. P. Hunt, Mrs. David Murphy, Concord; Mrs. George Morris, Lancaster; Mrs. Bessie P. Norris, Portsmouth; Mrs. Howard Parker, Berlin; Miss Mary A. HOW MANY WOMEN DO YOU KNOW

Who can say they are perfectly well? "I am tired all the time," "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly," "I can hardly drag around today," and all such expressions are characteristic of women who have overtaxed their strength until head-
